Please take a moment to carefully read our MASSAGE CANCELLATION POLICY and sign.

- You may cancel your massage appointment without charge 24 hours in advance at Bodyworks Physical Therapy. This is a courtesy to other clients and your massage therapist who is reserving time specifically for you.
- Same day cancellations will be charged 50% of the scheduled massage price.
- If you do not call to cancel your appointment at least 2 hours prior to the scheduled time or do not show up for your scheduled appointment, you will be charged for the full price of your scheduled massage.
- If your appointment was booked under a gift certificate or pre-paid massage, it will be voided in lieu of the fee.
- Appointment reminders are provided via e-mail, however, we will not be held responsible for technological difficulties. Please write your appointment time down in a secure location.
- If you are late for your scheduled massage appointment, your appointment time may be shortened in order for your massage therapist to stay on schedule.
